DANCE SOCIETY

DANCE PUPILS ENTERTAIN ROTARY

A most interesting program was enjoyed by the Torrance Rotary Club at their last week's meeting. The program was in charge of Mme. Teala Billini, pianist, who presented three professional students of the Mae Murray School of the Dance, together with Paul Gilliam, radio singer.

These students, Gene Springer, Wanda Stevenson and Lola Jensen, have appeared at many Los Angeles theatres, among them Loew's State, Paramount, Figueroa and others. They are young, being from 11 to 14 years of age, but their work is characterized by artistic finish and charm that many an older dancer might well envy.

Miss Murray, their teacher, has been premier danseuse of the Metropolitan Opera Co., has had her own act on Keith-Orpheum for many years and is a former dancing partner of Ernest Belcher. Her studio is located at 4143 So. Figueroa street, Los Angeles. Telephone ADams 6657. Miss Murray plans to open several branches in the surrounding towns and anyone interested in the Torrance classes can either call Mme Billini, 1804 Portola avenue, telephone 670, or call the main studio, 4143 So. Figueroa, telephone ADams 6657.

Instruction can be had in tap, clog, ballet, acrobatic, in fact any branch of the dance. Songs were furnished by Mr. Paul Gilliam. Mr. Gilliam is outstanding in his line of work. He has a lovely, sweet, natural voice and is well known to radio audiences of the Southland.
